Councilwoman Rogers read the City's Mission Statement.

ITEM #04 – ROLL CALL

All members of the Council were present.

ITEM #05 – APPROVAL OF MINUTES – REGULAR MEETING, OCTOBER 20, 2020

Councilwoman Rogers: Mr. Mayor, I believe I just have one addition or correction and it's at the top of page 20 of 22 pages. And it's Councilwoman Rogers, so it's like the second line then, 'cause the first one, on page 20, and basically it says, "Mr. Mayor, use our time, take a vote or whatever, but I wondered if," and then it says, "L-E-Y-V-A, Leyva, could answer the question for me." And I believe it should say "legal", which would be Bobby Yu. So, the correction would be take L-E-Y-V-A out and it could be legal or Mr. Yu. That's my only correction of the minutes.

Mayor Teso: Okay.

Councilman Romero: Make a motion we correct the, accept the minutes.

Vice-Mayor Lopez: Second.

Mayor Teso: Okay.

Mayor Teso: Mr. Romero.

Councilman Romero: Aye.

Mayor Teso: Ms. Rogers.

Councilwoman Rogers: Aye.

Mayor Teso: Ms. Romero.

Councilwoman Romero: Aye.

Mayor Teso: Mr. Oyegbola.

Councilman Oyegbola: Aye.

Mayor Teso: Mr. Diaz.

Acting Mayor Diaz: Aye.

Mayor Teso: Mr. Lopez.

Vice-Mayor Lopez: Yes.

Mayor Teso: Aye. Motion carries.

ITEM #06 – MAYOR AND COUNCIL MEMBERS: REPORTS OF CURRENT EVENTS; FUTURE AGENDA ITEMS

Mayor Teso: Anyone have any current events they'd like to report on?

Vice-Mayor Lopez: Mr. Mayor, there's going to be a Public Hearing on December 1st through 2nd from that Sonoran Corridor Transportation Study.

Mayor Teso: Right.

Vice-Mayor Lopez: They're having a meeting on 7051 South Tucson Boulevard at the Doubletree Inn Suites. It's going to be very interesting. And then I also have, this is coming from Adelita Grijalva, our new Supervisor, County Supervisor, and she has initiated five testing sites for COVID-19. So, the first one is November 17th, which is today, from 9:00 to 1:00 at the Nottingham Apartments on Alvernon. And then on the 18th, there's a Theresa Lee Public Health Center on Commerce Circle from 3:00 to 7:00 on the 18th of November. On the 21st of November from 9:00 to 12:00 at the Tucson Rodeo Ground, 4823 South 6th Avenue. The other one is Freedom Park, December 5, from 8:00 to 12:00 and they are at 5000 East 29th Street. And the last one is at the YWCA at the House of Neighborly Service, January 9th from 8:00 to 12:00, and their address is 243 North, 33rd Street. That's all I have, Mr. Mayor.

Mayor Teso: Okay. Thank you. I believe, also, that on the County website there's an actual, a form in there, it's a referral form that anyone who is interested in getting tested for free, they can self, it's a self-referral form that you can fill out and basically set up an appointment and all to get all that at various locations. I don't think it's just one location, but the, as well. So, I'll get a hold of that website, the URL or whatever, and we can distribute that as well. And also, we have a couple of Thanksgiving events. I believe there's several organizations that are involved, including Banner University, Health Plans, Vantage West, McDonald's, and several others. And they're going to be giving away 1,000 turkeys. And there's going to be a drive-thru type of event and it'll be held, I believe, at the Rodeo, yeah, at the Rodeo Grounds on 6th and Irvington on the, I think it says 21st, let me check here. I don't see a date here, but I'm pretty sure it's the 21st. I think I read it somewhere else. Plus, there's also at the Healthy South Tucson Coalition there was a document, a PDF document, that was presented there of a, locations that will be offering prepared meals for Thanksgiving. There's several different organizations on here. I have this copy of it, but I'll have, I've asked ICM Moreno to make copies of it and put it in your mailboxes. And they're distributed basically over that entire week, so it's not just on Thanksgiving Day, I think. They have dates scheduled from the 21st, including Casa Maria, Southside Presbyterian Church, Holy Family Church, Z Mansion, and others. But we'll have those to your mailboxes. Anyone else have any?

Acting Mayor Diaz: I've got a couple of them.

Mayor Teso: Okay.

Acting Mayor Diaz: Project SER, S-E-R, at 28th and 7th, would like to thank Public Works and all other departments that joined together to relocate the squatters and I guess they're gone, or all, mostly, at least moved. The other thing is in regarding the South Tucson Adopt a Street Program with Pueblo Optimist Club picked up trash on South 6th Avenue last Saturday. It looks pretty good so far. And also, there's no food boxes from South Tucson, or from the library this week. And I have no word as to next week because of Thanksgiving, so I'm not sure what, what dates that's gonna be. That's all.

Mayor Teso: Thank you. Ms. Rogers.

Councilwoman Rogers: Mr. Mayor, I'm gonna put this under Reports because it is a report and I just really want an answer before we go to Department Heads and City Manager's, etcetera report. And that is my concern about Bordon's Court on 4th Avenue I stopped at three times today. It's totally 100% wide open and dangerous. There was a person with a wheelchair in there. And I don't know who is responsible for that being fenced and padlocked. I don't know if it's the owner. I don't know if anybody is there, but it's extremely dangerous. Children can be raped there. It's wide open tonight and every, all weekend long, every window is out, every door is out, and someone has to have something to cover that up (inaudible). So, hope it will come out in Reports.

Mayor Teso: Okay.

Councilwoman Rogers: Thank you.

Mayor Teso: Any other reports by Council?

(No reports from the Council)

Mayor Teso: Do we have any future agenda items?

Acting Mayor Diaz: I have one. It's in regarding to the employee bonus, Christmas bonus that I recommend that it be brought up at the next Council meeting for discussion and action regarding the employee Christmas bonus.

Mayor Teso: Okay. Thank you. Anyone else have any reports?

(No response from the Council)

Mayor Teso: Okay. Then moving onto Item #07.

ITEM #07 – CITY MANAGER AND DEPARTMENT HEADS REPORTS TO MAYOR AND COUNCIL

Ms. Moreno: Thank you, Mayor, members of the Council. The next scheduled Council meeting is December the 1st (inaudible). And we will definitely be having a Housing Board update. There have been some changes since the last presentation you had regarding the Housing Authority. And I'd like to bring Mayor and Council an update as to what's been going on and transpiring since the last conversation we had. There's been some changes staffing-wise and also, you know, some regulations that need to be adhered to as per the request of HUD. But definitely I would like to report on that. Also, as Mr. Acting Mayor Diaz mentioned, the Christmas bonus for employees, I'll have our Finance Director provide kind of a breakdown as to maybe like in increments of amount of what it would look like for Mayor and Council to consider. As it pertains to what Councilwoman Rogers, as you mentioned, and the concerns of Bordon Courts, I agree there are a lot of properties out there in the City that have obvious violations. As a matter of fact, our Development Services Department, which include our Building Inspector and the Code Enforcement Officer, are out there. They meet with the City Attorney weekly to review and update what's going on. And I'll have a report on the status of NOD, you know, as a report, including in the agenda, as well as a report from them here at the Council meeting as well. That concludes my report. Thank you.

Mayor Teso: Okay. Thank you. Okay. Moving onto Item #08.

ITEM #08 – INSTALLATION OF NEWLY ELECTED COUNCIL MEMBERS: PAUL DIAZ, HERMAN LOPEZ, RITA ROGERS AND ANITA ROMERO

Ms. Moreno: Yes, thank you. Mayor, members of the Council, this is the time and place where our Magistrate Judge, Ms. Darlene Chavez, will be officiating the Oath of Office for the newly elected Council, which includes, as you mentioned, Rita Rogers, Anita Romero, Herman Lopez, and Paul Diaz. So, I have the documents here and she will perform the ...

Councilwoman Rogers: Mr. Mayor, ...

Ms. Moreno: ... Oath of Office.

Councilwoman Rogers: ... I have a question regarding the, the agenda item which is the Installation of the Newly Council Members. Anita Romero is not in here. Well, I don't see you. I have ...

Councilman Romero: She's right there.

Councilwoman Rogers: ... Paul Diaz, Herman Lopez, and Rita Rogers.

(Inaudible background conversation)

Councilwoman Rogers: Well, it's kind of important 'cause it says the people (inaudible). Do you see ...

Ms. Moreno: Okay. That was, ...

Councilwoman Rogers: ... what I ...

Ms. Moreno: ... that, I'm sorry, that was a typo, but I do have her on the face sheet.

Councilwoman Rogers: Oh, good.

Ms. Moreno: I apologize for the typo. Sorry.

Councilwoman Rogers: I, well, I've got to watch out for Anita.

Ms. Moreno: I'm sorry. Sorry about that. That was my, ...

Councilwoman Rogers: (Inaudible).

Ms. Moreno: ... my mistake, so I apologize.

Councilwoman Rogers: That's okay.

Ms. Moreno: I didn't forget her. I have her here and I have everything here.

Councilwoman Rogers: Okay, good.

Ms. Moreno: Thank you.

Judge Chavez: Do you want me to start?

Ms. Moreno: Yes, please.

Judge Chavez officiated over the Installation of the Newly Elected Council Members and administered the Oath of Office.

Mayor Teso: Congratulations to all. Moving onto Item #09

ITEM #09 – ELECTION OF MAYOR

Councilwoman Romero: I would like to nominate Paul Diaz for Mayor.

Mayor Teso: Do we have a second?

Councilwoman Rogers: Second.

Mayor Teso: Okay.

Mayor Teso: Mr. Romero.

Councilman Romero: No.

Acting Mayor Diaz: Excuse me. I guess the procedure would be for you to call for the nominations at least three times.

(Simultaneous conversation)

Acting Mayor Diaz: For nominations.

Councilwoman Romero: It's still open, so three times. It's kind of like the auction where you say, "Any other (inaudible)?" So, he's asking for it to be called three times. (Inaudible).

Ms. Moreno: (Inaudible).

Mayor Teso: Have you done that before?

Ms. Moreno: No. I've never witnessed it, but I mean I'll refer it to the City Attorney.

Mr. Yu: Well, I, I can't say I've witnessed it either.

Ms. Moreno: I haven't.

Acting Mayor Diaz: But ...

Mr. Yu: It's up to the Council.

Acting Mayor Diaz: Oh, okay. It's up to the Council, so (inaudible).

Councilwoman Rogers: Mr. Mayor, I can't hear anything of what's being said. I don't know what they're saying.

Mayor Teso: Oh. Can you repeat that?

Acting Mayor Diaz: Huh?

Mayor Teso: Can you repeat that? She didn't hear you.

Acting Mayor Diaz: No, the, the regular procedures that I believe should be followed is the fact that when you're calling for nominations, that nominations be called at least three times in case there's other nominations from the floor. And then proceed after that with the voting, either by secret ballot, or by hand-showing, or however the Mayor decides to do.

Mayor Teso: Okay.

Acting Mayor Diaz: But that's, you know, the, the City Attorney suggest that it's up to the Mayor to decide.

Mayor Teso: For me, it's just a normal resolution, or whatever, or, yeah. I, I would just go through ...

Acting Mayor Diaz:: I don't know ...

Mayor Teso: ... the same ...

Acting Mayor Diaz: ... (inaudible) that, but just, you know, go ahead.

Mayor Teso: Okay.

Ms. Moreno: I, I, if I may, Mayor, ...

Mayor Teso: Yes.

Ms. Moreno: ... just to my recollection, you may or may not agree with me, Mayor and Council, but, you know, whoever makes the motion for a person to be appointed to "X" position, would be followed by a second motion. And then you would go down the line as a Roll Call. And if there is no vote, then the vote dies and then, you know, then you would hear a motion for, for "X" position and then the name would be called out loud and you follow that same process until you get a majority for whomever is going to be appointed to that position. Does that, does that flow?

Vice-Mayor Lopez: Mm hm.

Ms. Moreno: I think that, what I would believe to be ...

Mayor Teso: Ms. Rogers?

Ms. Moreno: ... (inaudible) process.

Councilwoman Rogers: No, Mr. Mayor, this ...

Ms. Moreno: (Inaudible).

Councilwoman Rogers: ... (inaudible). I'm sorry. This is what I think is a possibility. I'll give you an example and you can say if you understand it. Just say that there was an Irish leprechaun in the audience and someone might move that person. And then somebody else might move Mr. Lopez. Who knows? But then everybody on the Council has an idea of who would be if it wasn't the first one that Anita said. So, I understand exactly what you're saying 'cause (inaudible) get no votes, you know. But, but at least people would have an ability to know that there was more than what you had to vote on somebody or somebody one at a time.

Vice-Mayor Lopez: Right.

Councilwoman Rogers: So, I don't think that other people can't nominate others.

Ms. Moreno: No, of course.

Vice-Mayor Lopez: Until you're done.

Councilwoman Rogers: So, it's gotta be organized ...

Ms. Moreno: Right.

Councilwoman Rogers: ... on that vote.

Ms. Moreno: Right.

Councilwoman Rogers: I'm not Legal.

Mr. Yu: I should mention that for any motion, typically after a motion and a second, there, there can be discussion on the motion.

Mayor Teso: Right.

Mr. Yu: So, with that, and the discussion and, or potential other candidates for Mayor if, if the Council so chooses.

Mayor Teso: Okay. So, we can ask for other nominations?

Mr. Yu: That's up to the Council as a whole.

Mayor Teso: Okay. I think (inaudible) ...

Councilman Oyegbola: So we finish ...

Mayor Teso: ... (inaudible).

Councilman Oyegbola: ... up the vote first though, right, before we do that?

Mr. Yu: I mean, typically, with the discussion on a motion it's, it's done before the actual vote.

Councilman Oyegbola: Oh, okay.

Mayor Teso: Okay. So I'm, I'm a little confused here. I'm not exactly sure what ...

(Simultaneous conversation)

Vice-Mayor Lopez: Mr. Mayor.

Councilwoman Rogers: Could I speak to it again? I believe that legally, unless you want to pay a $5,000 fine, no one can be at an open meeting knowing who their four votes are. So, if other people have people that they want to be Mayor, it should be brought out. There's only one nomination right now.

Mayor Teso: At this point in time. So we're, if we don't go through with this one nomination at a time ...

Councilman Oyegbola: (Inaudible) motion.

Councilwoman Rogers: I have no input.

Councilman Romero: A motion, Rita? I'll give you a motion.

Councilwoman Rogers: (Inaudible).

Councilman Romero: I make a motion we leave the Mayor and Council the way it is right now.

Councilman Oyegbola: Second.

Councilman Romero: How's that for a motion?

Mayor Teso: Any discussion?

Acting Mayor Diaz: Just one more comment. This is not really a motion. It's call for nominations. So, it's not a motion. It's a call for nominations and the definition under nominations is what I explained before. It's not a matter of a motion or not. That's my (inaudible).

Vice-Mayor Lopez: Mr. Mayor.

Mayor Teso: Mr. Lopez.

Vice-Mayor Lopez: Can a council member nominate himself? Like could I nominate myself for, to run for Mayor or be voted for Mayor?

Mayor Teso: That's, I don't, I don't know. Mr. Yu?

Mr. Yu: I don't see why not.

Vice-Mayor Lopez: That will give us two, two people going for the same position, better than just having one.

Mr. Yu: (Inaudible) discussion of who, who ...

(Background conversation)

Mr. Yu: ... (inaudible).

Mayor Teso: I think it would be better if we just go through with the normal way we do resolutions. I don't know, I, it seems to me that we did that the last time.

Acting Mayor Diaz: So you have, then, a motion on the floor then and a second, I guess. Was there a second?

Councilwoman Rogers: Second for the last, I vote, I'm not, ...

Acting Mayor Diaz: No, no, no.

Councilwoman Rogers: ... I was ...

Acting Mayor Diaz: The motion is ...

Councilwoman Rogers: ... the second ...

Acting Mayor Diaz: ... from ...

Councilwoman Rogers: ... (inaudible).

Acting Mayor Diaz: ... Romero.

Ms. Moreno: But didn't do a ...

Acting Mayor Diaz: So, ...

Ms. Moreno: ... Roll Call.

Councilwoman Rogers: Oh, I didn't do any seconds ...

Ms. Moreno: (Inaudible) ...

Councilwoman Rogers: ... (inaudible).

Ms. Moreno: ... Diaz.

Mr. Yu: I just want to make it clear. It sounds like we have two motions.

Mayor Teso: We have two motions, right? Yeah.

Mr. Yu: So, we should be clear on what motion is being voted on.

Mayor Teso: Okay.

Ms. Moreno: The first one.

Councilwoman Rogers: There are two different choices.

Mayor Teso: Right, right. One involves things as they are now. Right? And the other is a motion to nominate Mr. Diaz. So, we get rid of one motion, so we can only work on one.

Councilman Romero: Vote on ...

Ms. Moreno: Did the first motion die? The one with, with the ...

(Background conversation)

Ms. Moreno: ... appoint, the motion to appoint Diaz as Mayor? There was no Roll Call.

Councilman Romero: No.

Mayor Teso: Right, there was no Roll.

Ms. Moreno: Anita made a motion and then Rita made a second.

Mayor Teso: Right.

Ms. Moreno: No Roll Call.

Mayor Teso: There has been no Roll Call. Right.

Ms. Moreno: Is there going to be a Roll Call for that?

Mayor Teso: Sure. Yeah. Okay.

Ms. Moreno: Because that's what's on the table right now, right?

Mr. Yu: Right.

Ms. Moreno: Okay.

Mayor Teso: The motion for Mr. Diaz.

Ms. Moreno: Right.

Mayor Teso: Okay.

Ms. Moreno: (Inaudible) Councilwoman Anita Romero, seconded by Councilwoman Rogers and then you go down the line.

Mayor Teso: Okay. Alright. If there's no more discussion, we'll go to Roll Call.

Mayor Teso: Mr. Romero.

Councilman Romero: No.

Mayor Teso: Ms. Rogers.

Councilwoman Rogers: Yes.

Mayor Teso: Ms. Romero.

Councilwoman Romero: Yes.

Mayor Teso: Mr. Oyegbola.

Councilman Oyegbola: Abstain.

Mayor Teso: Mr. Diaz.

Acting Mayor Diaz: Yes.

Mayor Teso: Mr. Lopez.

Vice-Mayor Lopez: No.

Mayor Teso: Nay.

Mayor Teso: Okay. Now we had a second motion. Is that still on the table, right?

Unknown: Correct.

Mayor Teso: Okay.

Mr. Yu: I, I should mention that that motion doesn't directly relate to Election of Mayor. Maybe it can be rephrased so that it is specific to Election of Mayor.

Mayor Teso: Okay. So that may not work, right?

Ms. Moreno: No. You just need to say Election of Mayor. So that was the motion for Election of Mayor, so that's what (inaudible)?

Mr. Yu: Right.

Ms. Moreno: So just say the word.

Mayor Teso: Okay. So, we have a motion on the table for the Election of Mayor, stipulating that Council remains, remains the same as is.

(Simultaneous conversation)

Ms. Moreno: That's not on the agenda. The item on the agenda, if I may, ...

Mayor Teso: Okay.

Ms. Moreno: ... so sorry, so then you, you ask for another motion under the same agenda item for Election of Mayor. And then someone will make a motion for another person.

Mayor Teso: Okay. Okay. Do we have a motion for, a nomination for Election to Mayor.

Councilman Oyegbola: I'd like to make a motion.

Mayor Teso: Mr. Oyegbola.

Councilman Oyegbola: The motion that we keep Bob Teso as Mayor.

Mayor Teso: Do we have, do we have a second? Okay. Mr. Romero second it. Okay. Going to Roll Call.

Mayor Teso: Mr. Romero.

Councilman Romero: Yes.

Mayor Teso: Ms. Rogers.

Councilwoman Rogers: No.

Mayor Teso: Ms. Romero.

Councilwoman Romero: No.

Mayor Teso: Mr. Oyegbola.

Councilman Oyegbola: Yes.

Mayor Teso: Mr. Diaz.

Acting Mayor Diaz: No.

Mayor Teso: Mr. Lopez.

Vice-Mayor Lopez: No.

Mayor Teso: Aye.

Mayor Teso: Moving onto a third nomination. Do we have a nomination for the Office of Mayor?

Vice-Mayor Lopez: Mr. Mayor, can I self-nominate myself?

Mayor Teso: It can be, Mr. Yu said that that was fine. Do we have a second?

(No second, motion dies)

Mayor Teso: Moving onto an additional nomination. Do we have a motion for Mayor?

(No nominations by the Council)

Mayor Teso: Okay. I think we're, we've got, got a problem here. So, what do we need to do? We need to have some discussion. How, how do we resolve this?

Councilman Romero: Are you asking a question, sir?

Mayor Teso: Please.

Councilman Romero: I ain't got nothing to say.

Mayor Teso: Oh, okay. Anybody else have any discussion on the matter?

(No discussion from the Council)

Mayor Teso: I guess, can we postpone this to a future date?

Mr. Yu: Mayor, members of the Council, the options, essentially, are either electing someone today or tabling it for the next meeting where, I mean there still would need to be an Election of Mayor.

Mayor Teso: Okay.

Councilwoman Rogers: Mr. Mayor, I would move to table but if somebody seconds it, there's no discussion. I would move to table it to next meeting.

Mayor Teso: If somebody seconds it, excuse me?

Councilwoman Rogers: If somebody seconds, you have to discuss a table. I'm just letting you know that.

Mayor Teso: Okay. Do we have a second for tabling the issue to the next meeting?

Councilwoman Romero: I second.

Mayor Teso: You table it. I mean, yeah, okay. Second. Okay.

Mayor Teso: Mr. Romero.

Councilman Romero: Yes.

Mayor Teso: Ms. Rogers.

Councilwoman Rogers: Aye.

Mayor Teso: Ms. Romero.

Councilwoman Romero: Aye.

Mayor Teso: Mr. Oyegbola.

Councilman Oyegbola: Aye.

Mayor Teso: Mr. Diaz.

Acting Mayor Diaz: Yes.

Mayor Teso: Mr. Lopez.

Vice-Mayor Lopez: Yes.

Mayor Teso: Aye. Matter is tabled for the next meeting.

ITEM #10 – APPOINTMENT OF VICE-MAYOR

Councilman Romero: Mr. Mayor, I'll make an observation. Number 9 didn't pass. I would say number 10 and 11 are moot. So we might as well Call for Adjournment and get out of here.

Vice-Mayor Lopez: Second it.

Mayor Teso: Okay.

Councilwoman Rogers: You have to table 'em.

Mayor Teso: Yeah. Alright.

Mayor Teso: Mr. Romero.

Councilman Romero: Adjournment?

Mayor Teso: Yes.

Councilman Romero: Yes.

Councilwoman Rogers: Oh, we have to move to table things that are on the agenda, or just skip 'em? Skip 'em?

Councilman Romero: No, they already, they already tabled it.

Councilwoman Rogers: You can't ...

Mayor Teso: Yeah, everything ...

Councilwoman Rogers: ... (inaudible).

Mayor Teso: ... is ti-, everything else is tied.

ITEM #11 – APPOINTMENT OF ACTING MAYOR

ITEM #12 – ADJOURNMENT

Mayor Teso: Okay. So adjournment.

Councilman Romero: Yes.

Mayor Teso: Second.

Councilman Oyegbola: Second.

Mayor Teso: Okay.

Mayor Teso: Mr. Romero:

Councilman Romero: Aye.

Mayor Teso: Ms. Rogers.

Councilwoman Rogers: Aye.

Mayor Teso: Ms. Romero.

Councilwoman Romero: Aye.

Mayor Teso: Mr. Oyegbola.

Councilman Oyegbola: Aye.

Mayor Teso: Mr. Diaz.

Acting Mayor Diaz: Aye.

Mayor Teso: Mr. Lopez.

Vice-Mayor Lopez: Yes.

Mayor Teso: Aye. We are adjourned.

The meeting adjourned at 6:35 p.m.

Mayor
